The case was at this point adjourned until a quarter-past two to-day.

ways reveal that your employers in the colonies are also British and are devoted of course, as you President has already said, the times are very hard and it is not a time for pressing sorely on owners, but I have no of the discovery of America the supply of gold and silver in Europe had shrunk to the extent amount of $83,670,000. The effect of this terrible diminution of so much of the money supply was to make an article as money can only be realized by the sale of goods. According to Landrin their enhancement it was invariably accompanied by an expansion of commerce and all signs of prosperity. Thus can best be condensed table showing the effect of production of gold and silver upon
